

Regarding wed-hosting services that call businesses:I have refused these calls and asked to be taken off their list, not to call, not interested, and still find that they are charging my phone bill with their monthly services - which I refused or did not accept. We need to get businesses on the Do-Not-Call list also.